the next style generation

Textiles by St. Anne's provide quality textiles whether for an individual room, comprehensive interior design or refurbishment project, our experience and skills enables us to deliver. Our range of expertise extends to personalised towels, napkins and tablecloths all embroidered in our specialist workshop.

Since opening in 1999, Textiles by St Anne's has offered an extensive range of products and services, providing a blend of training and work opportunities for adults experiencing mental ill health. Our service is intended as a stepping stone on the path towards open employment, with Textiles by St Anne's offering the opportunity to experience working as a member of a team in an appropriate environment. Strict quality standards are maintained under the supervision of highly qualified staff - we pride ourselves on the quality and efficiency of the services we offer our customers.
