Specialises in the design and manufacture of soft furnishings for the contract and sub contract market.

We have all of the rigorous design, quality, manufacturing and innovation standards you'd expect from a professional manufacturer of curtains, blinds and other soft furnishings products destined for hotels, hospitals & care homes, schools, colleges & universities and a host of other commercial applications.

Textiles By St Annes can fulfil contracts of all sizes – large or small - with consistent quality, exceptional flair and attention to detail. We know what's important in a commercial contract – we understand materials specifications such as the use of fire retardant fabrics, the importance of deadlines and that all important criterion – value for money!

We can also act as your “overflow” production facility – if you have too much on and deadlines are getting tight – don't risk your reputation for quality by rushing or cutting corners – talk to us about our sub contracting service.
